

IN HEAVEN, an angel is no body in particular.—George Bernard Shaw. NEVER MARRY but for love; A MAN must not swerve but see that thou lovest what is lovely.—William Penn. What comes up must come down—kites being the only exception. Consequently special consideration was given to small fry who entered their kites in the Father and Son kite contest by offering special awards to those whose kites got lost in the tree tops.

Those whose kites were reported missing in action and who were honored with special awards were Kathy Rood, Chris Miles, Greg Eichler, Ken Walker, Lynn Stillwell, Jimmy Breitenfeldt, Terry Godfrey.

Winners were announced as follows by the Recreation Department:

Harold and Dianne White took 1st place honors in the largest kite category; Dennis Johnson, 2nd; Dan DePoranti, 3rd; and Rodney Clarke 4th.

Other winners were as follows: Most Novel Kite—Alan Albright, 1st; Teresa Ramos, 2nd; Tommy Brian, 3rd.

Smallest Kite—Eddy Healy, 1st; Bob Miles, 2nd; Tommy Miles, 3rd.

Most Outstanding—Niki and Roland Swinger, 1st; Andrew Marzulyi, 2nd; Joseph Walker, 3rd; Michael Bradley, Alan Albright, 1st. Youngest girl entry was won by Teresa Ramos. Oldest girl entry, Kathy Rood. Youngest boy, Tommy Miles; oldest boy, Eddy Healy.
